Alex Romero

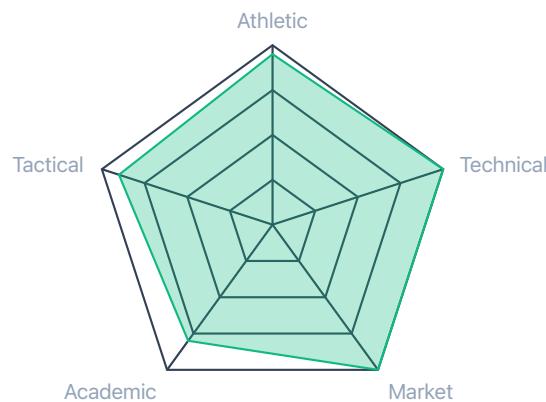

Class of 2026 • CM

03/12/2025

⚡ Executive Summary

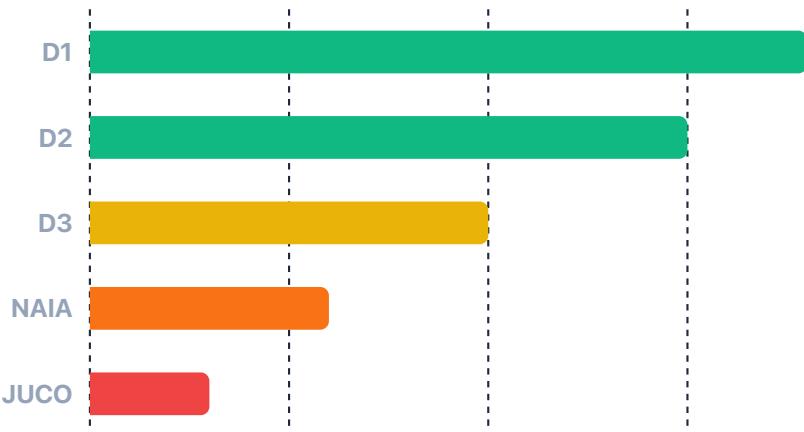

Alex, your profile as an MLS NEXT Key Starter with elite athletic and technical ratings positions you as a top D1 prospect. Your current offer and strong response rate indicate significant interest from college coaches. While your 3.6 GPA is solid for many D1s, targeting top academic programs may require further distinction. Your lack of semi-pro or adult league experience is a minor gap, but your overall trajectory is exceptional. The goal now is to strategically manage current interest, expand your outreach to optimize leverage, and continue your high-level performance to secure the best fit D1 scholarship.

Leverage your existing D1 offer to secure additional high-quality D1 opportunities by strategically expanding your targeted outreach to programs that best fit your overall profile.

⚠️ Performance Constraints

⚠️ WARNING

ACADEMICS

Your 3.6 GPA is solid and competitive for many D1 programs, but it falls below the typical average for highly selective academic D1 institutions, potentially narrowing your options within that top tier.

⚠️ WARNING

MATURITY & EXPERIENCE

Despite your strong youth club performance, your lack of semi-pro or adult league experience means you haven't been tested against older, more physically mature players, which can be a key differentiator for top D1 programs.

⚠️ OPTIMIZATION

MARKET EXECUTION

While you have received an offer, broadening your outreach and actively engaging a wider range of D1 programs that fit your profile could increase your options and leverage for securing the best opportunity.

⚠️ OPTIMIZATION

DEVELOPMENT TRAJECTORY

As a 2026 graduate, maintaining your elite performance and continuing to develop physically and tactically will be crucial over the next 12-18 months to solidify your top D1 opportunities.

📅 90 Day Game Plan

CRITICAL ACTION ITEM

● NEXT 30 DAYS

Refine highlight video, adding recent clips demonstrating tactical intelligence, defensive work rate, and consistent game-winning impact, especially against top opposition.

A HIGH IMPACT

 MED IMPACT NEXT 90 DAYS

Continue to excel in MLS NEXT, focusing on leadership and consistent impact in key games to maintain elite performance trajectory.

 HIGH IMPACT NEXT 30 DAYS

Proactively identify and research 10-15 additional D1 programs that align with academic and athletic goals, initiating contact with their coaching staff to broaden options.

 HIGH IMPACT NEXT 90 DAYS

Seek opportunities for early enrollment classes or advanced coursework to further strengthen academic profile for highly selective D1 institutions.
